SCORE and Salty Language

By Sean Isom on Thursday, October 13, 2022

President John opened the meeting, finding the ever-ready Susie S advancing on his space. Susie then shared about the passing of our beloved Dawit Zeleke, reading Cori Ong's post from his caringbridge pages on his life and how he was during his illness.

Our guests today included speaker Jackie McLean, prospective member Forest Mellton, Noon Club members Curtis Avrit, and prospective member Christian Garcia of Waste Management.

Announcements & Comments

- October 27th is our Halloween Social. The Murder-Mystery will be set in a 1926 speakeasy, so don your best gangster or flapper and join us at the Chico Air Museum. RSVP to Nancy today, as everyone is a suspect.
- November 3rd is the Torres Shelter Empty Bowls event. There are seatings at 5:00 and 6:30. See Howard S for tickets.
- Randy K was not in attendance, but somehow Howard and Mark S coordinated work to get some metal brackets ground off at the Esplanade House project.
- John T shared a video from the district, highlighting district activities, World Polio Day and the district Conference in Monterey. GERALYN, Nancy and John are headed to the event.

Recognitions

- Tanya L announced that she is headed to London then on to Madagascar and will be out of touch and incognito until 11/16. Have fun and we will hear about it when you return.
- Dana M shared that Frankie has taken up fly fishing with him. They have been to Almanor, Fall River and he has been buck hunting (first time he's drawn tags in four years). Asked about his fancy glasses, his table went into some 'boy humor'. While given 3 bells, he offered a big Benjamin instead.
- Our other greeter this morning, Randy L shared that he and Barbara spent 3 weeks in Africa, going to Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania. During the trip he saw Lyons and gorillas and brought back salad tongs for John...2 bells.

Program

Carl O introduced our speaker Jackie McLean from SCORE. Jackie has over 30 year's experience in HR working for the CSU system as well as other educational institutions. SCORE is the Service Core of Retired Executives and is a part of the SBA. They are a volunteer organization which provides counseling to people going into and running businesses. The Capital Corridor location covers from Stockton to the Oregon border and has helped people with recent crises from fires to Covid. They are always looking for more volunteers and keep commitments to less than 10 hours per month.

In Closing
