Friday Night Bites - September 2, 2022

Can you really call it work when you're having fun? Hot temperatures didn't stop Oakley's Friday Night Bites. Good music, and good food, and everyone is having a great time. This happens on the first Friday of the month, and we have fun pouring beer and wine. Everyone helps out, even spouses!

CoCo Farms

Rotary Club of Oakley went on a field trip this week to visit a local business - CoCo Farms. As a licensed dispensary, it was a fascinating tour and great to get a "behind the scenes" look at CoCo Farms. Thanks to our Programs Manager, Joe Weber for setting up this interesting program, and thank you to Mike Whitlock and Halle Copland for the interesting tour.

Boy Scouts of America

Calling on Oakley Rotarians! We have been contacted by our local Boy Scouts of America for help. They are doing a kite event similar to the one we did last April and need some help. This event will take place on Sunday, 9/18 at Big Break Park from 1pm - 4pm. As you can see from the flyer below, they have been kind enough to put our logo on their flyer. Let's show them what Rotarian do when called on for help. The contact person is Sarah McNamara and the link to sign up to help is below.
