Captain Jeffrey Breazeale (pronounced Brazil)

Captain Breazeale has been with The Salvation Army for 16 years, 10 of those years as a Salvation Army officers. Most of his career has been with Salvation Army corps in Arizona. He attended The Salvation Army College for Officer Training in Rancho Palms Verdes California in an intensive seminary for two years where he graduated and received the commission of Lieutenant. He was also ordained as a pastor with The Salvation Army. Captains Breazeale celebrated 28 years of marriage in September and have five children, four biological and one adopted.

While serving in Arizona, Captain Breazeale worked directly with community members, leaders, as well as local and state government. They were directly responsible for After School Programs, food boxes, community meal programs, and Homeless services. He is very active in the community and has a heart for those experiencing hardships of all kinds. He is very active in Emergency Disaster Services supporting local and state Governments in coordination and response as needed.

Prior to his service in The Salvation Army, Jeffrey served in the United States Air Force for eleven years (1996-2007). Jeff served as an F-16 aircraft mechanic all around the world. Captain Breazeale also served in 3 deployments during his military service in many capacities.
