Bulletin for 11/14/22

Monday, November 14, 2022

Tara Stewart will tell us about Love Lodi. She'll share the history, goals and future of this local philanthropic group. (Sam Rehmke arranged for this presentation.)

Upcoming meetings:

Nov. 21 — No meeting. We're taking the day off in honor of Thanksgiving.

Nov. 28 — Board meeting. No social meeting this month.

Dec. 5 — Jeff Jenner is a local vintner and author who's written a book about pairing food with local wines. (Lisa Craig arranged Jeff's date with us.)

Dec. 12 — Dave Rajkovich, President of the Stockton Maritime Museum, will tell us about the volunteers who are restoring the Korean War era minesweeper USS Lucid and their plans for turning it into a major tourist attraction in Stockton. (Marty Weybret arranged for Dave's presentation.)

Dec. 19 — Christmas Party

Dec. 26 — No meeting. Merry Christmas.

Jan. 2 — No meeting. Happy New Year.

Jan. 9 — Lodi Police Chief Siera Brucia will tell us about his training at the FBI Academy. (Pres. Lisa arranged the Chief's visit.)

Jan. 16 — Past International President Richard D. King will be pumping up the Rotary troops at a joint meeting. Mr. Editor hears we'll be meeting at the Woodbridge Country Club with the Wednesday morning Sunrise Club and Lodi Club (which normally meets for lunch Thursdays). Thanks to Dan Smith for arranging Rick's appearance in Lodi.

If you know of someone who will expand all our horizons with an interesting talk, please contact Dan Smith (510-599-4762; djsmith@bpschapel.com).

Upcoming events:

November 17 (Thursday) — Kettle Kickoff lunch 11:30 a.m. at the Grape Festival. It's a fun event with good turkey, gravy and fixings. Lodi Tokay Rotary is sponsoring a table so RSVP to either Pres. Lisa (lcraiggroup@gmail.com) or Linda Ogata (ogatas@pacbell.net). Please bring your wallet so you can "represent us" with your Salvation Army donation.
