Bulletin for 4/22/19

April 22 meeting

Pres. Sam is changing the rules, and we're meeting today, the fourth Monday of April. Our speaker is BAC Bank CEO Bill Trezza, who will explain the Fed's efforts to sustain the economic recovery that we've been in since the 2008 mortgage market crisis. Jeremy arranged this one.

Sponsors needed!

Beerfest sponsorship chairman Craig Hoffman needs help locating sponsors. To date we have checks from Jensen-Rasmussen, Williamson, Evergreen Home Loans, Hoffman and Stogies $2,250 and that's not our usual level. If you know of other sponsors please let Craig know 747-4077.

Upcoming Events:

April 30 (Tuesday) ♦ Game night at the Hoffmans, ♦ hosted ♦ by Linda Ogata. The place is 2344 Cabrillo Circle; the time is 5:30 p.m. until the Rotary family feud is settled. This is our monthly Social meeting.

June 24 (Monday) ♦ The Committee is preparing to kick Pres. Sami out of office. For those who keep careful calendars, festivities begin 5:30 p.m. at Mason's Beach (entrance across from 1137 Edgewood Drive).

Upcoming speakers & meetings:

April 29 ♦ No lunch meeting (fifth Monday), but there's a social meeting. See upcoming events above.

May 6 ♦ Gustine Rotary Club International Chairman, Brent Tanner will fill us in on the water filtration project that we supported in December. Gary Greider arranged Brent's appearance.

May 13 ♦ Freddie Almazan, through use of his personal story, teaches people that our perspective in life, and the choices we make as a result, determines the quality of our lives; that every challenge we face offers an invaluable opportunity to develop our character; and that changing what we do begins by changing who we are, which is achieved through forgiveness. Craig Hoffman arranged Freddie's appearance.

May 20 ♦ Shelby Young executive director of Lodi House will speak about Lodi's homeless problem. Although Lodi House addresses a piece of the problem, Young thinks Lodi needs to understand all the complexities of homelessness and the importance of our role. There are no quick, cheap solutions, she said. Marty Weybret arranged this program.

May 27 ♦ No meeting (Memorial Day falls on the fourth Monday of May).

June 3 ♦ Armando Ayala speaks to us about his non-profit agency: United Cerebral Palsy of San Joaquin. Jeremy Lenser arranged Armando's appearance.

June 10 ♦ Past President and multiple Paul Harris Fellow Bill Meehleis will tell us ♦ How to Build a School During Recess. ♦ Apparently he and his company have done it. Jeremy Lenser arranged for Bill's appearance.

June 17 ♦ We'll get the final playbook for the Lodi Craft Beer Festival. Jo Ellen Flemmer's the chairwoman.
