Bulletin for 5/13/19

May 13 meeting

Motivational speaker Freddie Almazan will be front and center. His personal story teaches that our choices determine the quality of our lives, that every challenge we face is an opportunity to develop our character; and that changing who we are is achieved through forgiveness. Craig Hoffman arranged Freddie's appearance.

Be the inspiration! If you don't have a Beer Fest job, get one or two why not stretch your Rotary inspiration? Dave Warner is the volunteer coordinator: 747-1401 or dwarner711@comcast.net. The time is now!

Upcoming speakers & meetings:

May 20 Shelby Young executive director of Lodi House will speak about Lodi's homeless problem. Shelby thinks Lodians need to understand all the complexities of homelessness and the importance of finding a role. There are no quick, cheap solutions, she said. Marty Weybret arranged this program.

May 27 No meeting (Memorial Day falls on the fourth Monday of May).

June 3 Armando Ayala speaks to us about his non-profit agency: United Cerebral Palsy of San Joaquin. Jeremy Lenser arranged Armando's appearance.

June 10 Past President and multiple Paul Harris Fellow Bill Meehleis will tell us How to Build a School During Recess. Apparently he and his company have done it. Jeremy Lenser arranged for Bill's appearance.

June 17 We'll get the final playbook for the Lodi Craft Beer Festival. Jo Ellen Flemmer the chairwoman.

Upcoming Events:

May 29 (Wednesday) We're having a social meeting at Mason's Beach at 5:30 p.m. There's a charge of $5 person drinks and dinner provided. Is this a dry run for the Kickout? Who knows?

June 24 (Monday) Sam's Presidential Kickout 5:30 p.m. at Mason's Beach (entrance across from 1137 Edgewood Drive). Keep a sharp eye out for chairman Craig's signup sheet.
