Pedrozo was born in Merced and raised on a dairy ranch about 7 miles outside the city limits. He attended Golden Valley High School and graduated in 2001. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree in Agriculture Business Finance at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. He then served an internship in Washington D.C. for Congressman Dennis Cardoza.

In 2006, Pedrozo moved to Philadelphia and worked for the U.S. Department of Labor processing immigrant labor visas. In 2007, he moved back to California to complete his teaching credential and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Golden Gate University in San Francisco. In 2008, he was hired by Merced Union High School District to teach at the Merced High School campus where he taught US History for 14 years prior to his election to the board of supervisors. He served on the Merced City Council for nine consecutive years from 2009 to 2018. He was elected as District 2 Supervisor in 2021.
