President Jonathan Geisler 3rd Generation Rotarian

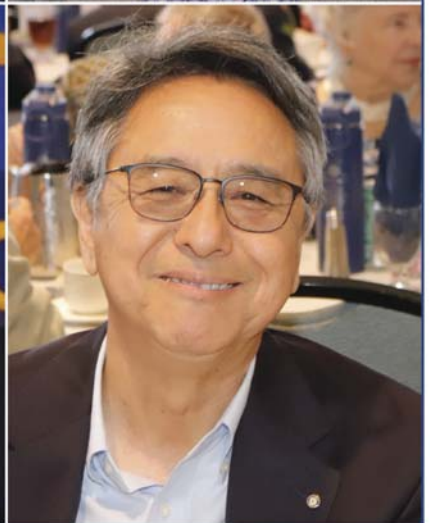

A member of The Rotary Club of Monterey since 2014, Jonathan is a 3rd generation Rotarian. The first was his paternal grandfather, Guy Geisler, that was a founding member of the Rotary Club of Brussels. His father, Frank, was a member and Past President (2008-2009) of this club from 1992-2023; and currently a member of the Sand Point club in Idaho.

One of only 2 father/son Presidents of this club.

Jonathan is the owner of Geisler Marketing; a promotional, print and apparel-branding company. The business was founded by Frank, and has been on the Monterey County since 1984. Jonathan earned his BS from San Diego State University, as well as played on the football team for the Aztecs. Proud alumni of Hartnell '95-'96.

In addition, Jonathan is currently serving on the Salinas Valley Health Foundation board; as well as held many board positions in Monterey County since 2004. He lives in Del Rey Oaks with wife, Sasha, and 3 children: Julienne (15), Olivier (4) and Geneviève (2).

Besides Rotary, his passions are free dive spearfishing, enduro motorcycling, competing in IronMan, traveling and working as a volunteer with Monterey County Sheriff's Search And Rescue team.

August 15-17, 2024

UPDATE:

Auction sign-ups are under way with about 55% of the shifts now filled – only 130 shifts left to fill. As a reminder, the three Auction nights are on August 15, 16 and 17 where the activity for our club really ramps up. We need everyone to sign up for three or more shifts, and especially those who have not signed up yet – don't wait. We have made it very easy to sign up online. You are welcome to invite fellow Rotarians from other clubs, students need service hours, and the like if you would like to reach out to our brothers and sisters in these arenas. The sign up spreadsheet has tabs across the bottom for each day where volunteers are needed. Pick your shifts, insert your name, email and cell phone next to your chosen shifts, and you are all set. please email Eric at johnsenes@gmail.com. Terry and Eric and here to answer your questions.
