(SSAG) since 2016. He served as Acting Provost of NPS from 2015 to 2016, Professor of Space Systems from 2008 to 2015, and visiting Professor from 2006-2008. Before coming to NPS, Dr. Newman served as an astronaut in the National Aeronautical and Space Administration (NASA) for twenty years. He flew on Space Shuttle missions STS-51, 69, 88, and 109, and served as the Director of NASA's Human Spaceflight Program in Moscow

Jim Newman

Reflections On Human Spaceflight; Why Single Planet Species Do Not Survive

Jim Newman watched the first moon landing as a 12-year-old. His passion for math and science led him to apply for the astronaut program. The rest, as they say, is history. Professor James Newman has served as the Chair of the Naval Postgraduate School's Space Systems Academic Group

Russia from 2002 to 2006. His teaching and research interests include the use of CubeSats and other very small satellites for focused research of National interest. These interests include space computing, distributed ground stations, unique sensors, and the use of hands-on, laboratory projects to motivate the research and learning process. He enjoys teaching, is broadly published and holds two patents. He has earned the Department of the Navy Superior Civilian Service Award, the AIAA Haley Space Flight Award, Rice University Distinguished Alumni Award, and NASA's Space Flight Awards for STS-51, 69, 88, and 109. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and received his PhD from Rice University. He and his wife call Pacific Grove home.

Holiday Luncheon

Rotary

Club of Monterey

The Rotary Club of Monterey celebrated the 247th birthday of the United States Marine Corps with the Marines of the DLI Marine Detachment. The evening of fellowship and tradition helped deepen the bond between our Club and the DLI Marines. The Marine Detachment Commander publicly thanked the Rotary Club of Monterey for our generous support of their birthday ball. We look forward to the Marines supporting us again during the next RM/Sothbey's Auction.
