Denis Horn

Vietnam War:

Whys and Wherefores

Today's program speaker is Denis Horn. He hails from Brooklyn N.Y. where he worked summers as a Coney Island life guard. His background includes 20 years in the USMC and a second 25 year career in Airport Administration, the last 15 as GM of the Monterey Airport. Denis and his wife Claire came to Monterey in 1988. Later that year he was inducted into Monterey Rotary. He served on our Rotary Club's Board of Director in 1996-7 and was President in 2002-3.

The idea for today's talk came a while back when there was a meeting program on "A Day in the Life of an Infantry Platoon." It was during the Vietnam war. During Q & A, a question was put to the geopolitics of that problematic war. Denis thought at the time that it would take at least a full program to do justice.

And here it is.
