Bill Clark DNA And Homicide Cold Case Investigations

Bill Clark started his career in law enforcement with the Monterey Police Department in 1989. In July of 2020 he retired from full time duty as the assistant chief of police after 31 years of service. Bill was then immediately sworn in as a part-time reserve police officer and assigned to the newly formed District Attorney's Office cold case task force as a cold case investigator. The cold case task force has been working on solving not only cold case homicides in Monterey County, but unsolved sexual assaults and unidentified human remains cases.

Bill was born and raised on the Monterey Peninsula. He and his wife Holly have 3 grown children and 9 grandchildren.
