Program

Nevada Mining Association: 21st Century Mining with President Dana Bennett

PDG Larry introduced Dana Bennett, the first female president of the Nevada Mining Association. Before moving to the Nevada Mining Association, she had been the Northern Nevada regional director for the Governor's Office of Economic Development.

She has a background rich in historical knowledge as well as experience as a lobbyist and as a research analyst.

Bennett is a Nevada native. She received her bachelor's degree from Boise State University, her master's degree from the State University of New York at Binghamton and her PhD from Arizona State University; all are history related. She has published several books, including "All Roads Lead to Battle Mountain," and she owned a historical research firm.

The Nevada Mining Association has been headquartered in Reno since 1913. Many minerals we use in our daily lives are found in Nevada. And, Nevada is the global leader in the production of Diatomite, also known as diatomaceous earth, the naturally occurring fossilized remains of diatoms. Diatoms are single-celled aquatic algae. Diatomite is a near pure sedimentary deposit consisting almost entirely of silica. Nevada produces 20 essential minerals we use every day including silver, gold, copper, and lithium. Visible gold is rare, you cannot just dig it up and sell it, it must be processed. Much investment is going into exploration. Nevada has the only lithium mine in the United States. The industry is heavily regulated in this state and the nation.

Mining is one of Nevada's safest industries. There are 30,000 mining jobs with an average wage of $94K. Women are being recruited to work in the industry.

PDG Larry thanked Ms. Bennett and presented her with a token of the club's appreciation.

Adjournment

The raffle pot was $248 and PDG Larry's number was drawn. He won $4.00.

PDG Larry then led the group in the Four-Way Test of the Things We Think, Say or Do.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 a.m.

Rotary International News

How Rotary Clubs are Celebrating World Polio Day

In eastern Ontario and western Quebec, Canada, thousands of Rotary members will put on red ponchos and march through the streets of their towns to raise awareness for polio eradication on World Polio Day, 24 October.

Michael Kinsey, governor of Rotary District 7010, which spans the two provinces, ordered 2,000 of the special ponchos, which include the End Polio Now logo, for members to purchase for $10 each. Half of that goes to Rotary's PolioPlus campaign, with the other half covering the cost of the poncho. Clubs are inviting local politicians and media to join the event, or holding small rallies to explain Rotary's role in bringing an end to the crippling disease.

Rotary is encouraging clubs to hold events on or near World Polio Day this year and register the events at endpolio.org. Last year, supporters in 90 countries registered more than 1,400 World Polio Day events. Members of the Rotaract Club of Pacific Beach, San Diego, California, USA, have organized a pub crawl for 14 October with special games, competitions, and discount food and drinks to raise money for polio eradication. Tickets to the six-bar event are $30.

The Rotary Club of Thorpe Bay, Essex, England, is sponsoring a Purple4Polio benefit concert at the Palace Theatre in Westcliff-on-Sea on 22 October. Alex Mendham and his Orchestra will play 1930s tunes from George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, and others.

The Rotary Club of Makati Central, Philippines, will hold a competition to crown Miss Earth 2017 on 21 October, with more than 500 business professionals invited to attend. The club will show videos of Rotary's efforts to eradicate polio throughout the competition.

Get ready for our fifth annual World Polio Day event, co-hosted with the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. We will stream live from Gates Foundation headquarters in Seattle, Washington, USA, to bring together more than 50,000 viewers around the world. Join us as global health experts and celebrities share our progress on the road to polio eradication. Celebrate with us!
