USMC Maj Kuntz with SoCal Burn Ride

By David H Hornback

SoCal Burn Ride Motorcycle Charity Event Saturday, October 26, 2024

USMC Ret Maj Dave Kuntz discusses the charity he co-founded

On Wednesday, Oct. 16, 2024, The Rotary Club of Montebello learned of the genesis and brilliant work the SoCal Burn Ride Motorcycle charity event supports. Co-founded by burn survivor Trevor Holtan and US Marine Corps Major David Kuntz, the SoCal Burn Ride is a charity motorcycle event to benefit burn survivors through the efforts of the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation.

The event is expecting approx. 300 riders and all proceeds from this annual fundraiser go to Survivor Services, Burn Prevention Education, Support Groups, Champ Camp and many other programs. This year's event will in particular support the AARB Champ Camp. Champ Camp is a week-long, residential summer camp experience for child burn survivors ages 5-17, who have been treated at California hospitals or are current residents of California. Each year, approximately 150 children attend this week long summer camp. The main focus of camp is for burn survivors to have fun and just be kids away from medical procedures and financial hardships. Camp provides a safe environment where burn survivors can play, learn, grow, gain self-esteem, and make new friends.
