TWO OF OUR CLUB'S annual programs are featured in fifteen-minute updates for your information this Thursday:

ANNIE BRASSARD'S EAST MEETS WEST intercultural program is coming soon, and she will be announcing the plans while seeking your help to join in bringing about another successful day, while describing one of the wonderful work we help sponsor.

YERO WASHINGTON'S BEAT THE STREETS wrestling accomplishments for at-risk kids has expanded to Marshall School, and he'll tell us how well that's doing. Morris Bird from BTSLA - the Los Angeles branch - is also coming to describe their upcoming fundraiser match between Team India and US Women's wrestling groups.

J.P. MAINGUY HAS BEEN SHOWING OFF the incredible successes of aquaponic farming and biodigestive waste projects in Cambodia with Andrew Kindler, Myron Hunt, and Isaac Hung on tour this month. Isaac is overflowing with his impressive enthusiasms for what they're seeing through J.P. and his son's tours, and we'll be proud to hear how our own club efforts are joining in success with these simple but effective programs once our four members safely return to San Marino.

WE ALL PLEDGE ◆Every Member, Every Year◆ support of The Rotary Foundation. A minimum of one hundred dollars from each of us makes us a 100% club once again. Chair Will Bortz is happy with the steady receipt of members' 2018-2019 pledges, but looks forward to reaching our perfect support this month. If you've not done your share yet, please get your check to Will at a meeting, or send it to the club post office box.

STEVE GARRETT has regretfully resigned from the club as of the end of December. As always, your help in inviting prospective future Rotary members and leaders is needed in filling our vacancies.

THE BIG CHILI CHALLENGE IS NEXT WEEK

BOB HOUSTON has received some fascinating entries, at least from their imaginative names. They're all chili, con- or no-con-carne, and you'll be the judge which are the best. There ◆s a pot of cash in it too, money already donated to go to the charity of the choice of each winning entry. Name a charity, name your chili, and join the fun. Bob has some special plans for the meeting. If you are interested in fixing a pot of your secret recipe chili, please call Bob right away - or catch him
