The ROTOSCOPE (lite version) of San Marino Rotary for May 9th 2019

There wasn't a rotary meeting last week and there's not much news to report. However, there are a few tidbits to share.

The Rotary Family on the Town was a success. Richard and Sean Lord welcomed about fifty plus San Marino Rotarians to their home this past Thursday night. The party took place in the beautiful, expansive back garden area of the home. Rotarians gathered around tables adorned with scented candles and blue table clothes, or near the makeshift bar manned by Scott Kwong. Rotarians, were initially greeted by Grace Yang and Evi Darmali at the front of the home. Grace took photos of couples and groups before we walked through the foyer. We were ushered by Richard Lord, who described the design of the living room as we passed through the entry way, and living room out to the garden area. As we made our way to the back of the Mediterranean styled home we were invited to have a drink and walk around to look at the exterior of the home. The arched doorways and windows created an open breezy feel. The open bar with red and white wine along with Fat Tire amber ale created breezy feel too. Fang Ho made an announcement and helped welcome the guests. The evening was enjoyed by all thank you to the Lord family.

Don't forget to get the Motor Classic Tickets you don't plan on using to Isaac Hung. He will effort to redistribute them into the hands of people who can use them. The Motor Classic is- JUNE 9th from 9:00 am until 3:00. Rob Feidler will once again help organize volunteer responsibilities.

Citywide

May 9th - Program- Bill Steele Mini Grants Projects. Come listen and watch teachers describe their innovative projects funded by Rotarians. A compilation video will be on hand showing many of the projects for the year. Two teachers have been selected to talk about here individual mini grants. It should be a fun if not educational luncheon.
