Speakers

Happy Bucks:

John Valentine-Hosted the 48th Family Get Together at Alisot Ranch

Ed Howard-Returned from his adventure in Greenland where he hiked 56miles and kayaked to glaciers. The population of Greenland, which is the size of Mexico, is only 60,000 and 20 ,000 live in the capital. Ed stayed in a city with a population of 123.

Elliott Brender- Is having knee replacement surgery next Wednesday and will miss our meetings for a few weeks.

Chad Zimmerman wish him well and for a speedy recovery.

Bill Campbell - Had a great trip to Washington,DC and New YorkCity with his grandson, who told his dad that when he becomes a grandfather he hopes to take his grandson/daughter on a similar trip. Bill also hosted a 4th of July Party at his home and put on a 1 hour fireworks show.

Paul Vann- attended a Bnai Mitzvah in South Bend, Indiana. Wife Donna got to visit a childhood friend in Chicago. He also noted that when the Rotary nominating committee asked him to be club president they said he didn't have to attend meetings... he's already attended one.

Diane Rothi- Got a $400 donation from one of her tax clients for the club.

Teri Elmendorf- Had a great lunch experience at the Citrus City Grill, especially since they noted she was wearing a Green Bay Packers Jersey. Moral of Story: When dining at Citrus City Grill wear a Packers Jersey.

Curt Condon- Was thrilled his stepson's wife gave birth to 2 healthy fraternal twin girls.

Wayne Silzel- Will join the Vocational Service Committee- But spun the wheel and had to pay $2.

Brady Fendt- Is going camping near the Kern River.

Bill Underwood-Attended a World Affairs Council Meeting and was impressed with the speaker. Another attendee noted the American Flag was on the wrong side and stood up to move it during the speech.

Speaker: Becky Areias Hilgenfeld Mortuary

Becky was born and raised in Anaheim and moved to Villa Park in 2016. She is the owner of the Hilgenfeld Mortuary that was started by her Grandfather in 1927 along with a mortuary college in Los Angeles. The college was sold to Cypress College in 1977 and is now the Cypress College School of Mortuary Science. Becky is the 4th generation of the family running the business. They are a full service mortuary serving all religions and can do burials and cremations. The business is located at 120 E Broadway, Anaheim. One No, No - don't drop cremated ashes at Disneyland.
