Speakers

Youth Services - Chad Zimmerman, Chair

- Mr Fabian will be the new faculty advisor for the American Chemical Society. He will continue the programs established by Dr Bartrom. Dr Bartrom has done an outstanding job as faculty advisor for Interact and the ACS for the last 15 years, but will be unable to continue in that capacity.

- Troop 850 held their annual Banana University in Idyllwild last weekend. If anyone wants to speak to the troop about their career please let Chad know .

- Marc Hurd noted that Mock Trial is now being added to our Rotary Recognition as sponsors and we are also supporting the choir and dance club.

Vocational Service- Marjan Roshangar, Chair

- Will be sending out an email to organize a meeting with her committee.

International Service- Mike Brunhofer, Chair

- The Caborca water storage tank is being built and will be installed in the coming months. Mike hopes to organize a trip there when it is installed and to discuss upcoming projects in the area.

- We will also be participating in a new global grant with the Long Beach Club that will construct 3 water wells in Mozambique. Our club will contribute $2000/ Long Beach will contribute $10,000

Interact - Brady Fendt did an outstanding job at the Gala.

TOLERANCE

Definition of tolerance: sympathy or indulgence for beliefs or practices differing from or conflicting with one's own

People who are tolerant are not weak, rather they are very strong. ... Nor are they indifferent; they show tolerance because they care for their oppressors. They also intend goodness for them. So, being tolerant is not a sign of weakness and indifference.

Tolerance allows people of different backgrounds, religions and races to work and live together, and this breeds unity. ... Peace can only come when people become free from hatred and are willing to understand each other's differences. If people are unable to tolerate each other, they become angry and frustrated

The rave reviews from the Gala keep coming from our members and the community Vito Canuso - thanked Charlie for the amazing job he and Risa Scott did to organize the event. Lesslie Giacobbi agreed and also thanked Vito and the other members of MacZ for the music during the event.

- He also thanked those Villa Park Rotarians who helped set the Child Care Room at the Friendly Center. This was done as part of a recent District Grant.

Don Ware - Wants to honor a fallen Vietnam Veteran named Chuck Armstrong. Armstrong was an Army Ranger who did special ops and earned 3 Purple Hearts from injuries sustained during that time. He passed away on January 23rd of this year. Don has been spending time with the family as they deal with the loss.

Chuck Armstrong- American Hero

Paul Vann- Is going to Israel to visit his grandkids.

Bill Underwood has been named Distinguished Citizen of the Month and invited club members to come to the upcoming City Council Meeting next Tuesday, September 26th at 6:30 to promote Rotary.

Afterwards you can join him at The Post to celebrate with a drink.

Speaker: Steve Stern Craft Talk

Steve may have retired from the Pawn Business, but he is now sharing his expertise as an appraiser of all household items, antiques, jewelry, gold, coins, stamps, all collectibles and more. Today he brought in some coins that may look like the real deal, but were fakes or forgeries. One thing he loved about the Pawn Business was that every day was different, you never knew what items his clients would bring in to pawn. His new business also provides estate sales, auctions, buys and sells gold and silver, and makes videos of your appraised valuables.

Charlie & Steve Stern

Final Quote.

Quote of the Week

“Life is a lot like a pawn shop - to welcome new treasures, you’ve got to let go of the old!”
