- Villa Park Elementary Grant- spent $7000.00/$1800 remains - Charlie will find a hands-on project in the community

September to Remember- Update:

- We have inked a magician and Vito Canuso's Band
- looking for a software program that will allow us to put our ticket sales and auction items on line.

Memberahip- Paul Vann, Chair

- Fireside Chat May 8th - he will contact members and speakers.

Community Service- Roy Berelowitz, Chair

- Roy and Charlie Gallagher are working with a local Troop 850 Scout who is going to do a project with CPR and AEDs- hoping to get an AED for the OC Sheriffs who patrol Villa Park to keep in their car. If the project is a success Charlie hopes it will go statewide and even national.
- Robert Frackelton showed us the new AED that is in city hall in a cabinet marked defibrillator.

Youth Services- Chad Zimmerman, Chair

- RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership) is on now and we have 2 students attending. It runs from Tuesday to Sunday.

- Interact and American Chemical Society are getting ready to select next years leadership team.

Vocational Service- Marjan Roshanga, Chair

- No report

International Service- Mike Brunhofer, Chair

- Mike is hoping to contact last week's speaker from the Free Wheelchair Mission to see if we can get involved.
- He also encouraged everyone to attend the upcoming District Conference Hospitality Night; its a great opportunity to network with other clubs and see if they want to partner on projects or grants.

Foundation- Jay Lieberman, Chair

- New promotion coming at the end of May for Paul Harris Recognition Points. For every dollar donated you get 1 Paul Harris Point; minimum donation $100.00

Speakers

In peacebuilding, reconciliation incorporates the search for truth, justice, forgiveness and accommodation between conflicting groups or people. Reconciliation is generally understood to be the reestablishment of friendly relations, though it assumes different forms and roles in different contexts. The process of making two people or groups of people friendly again after they have argued seriously or fought and kept apart from each other.

Seek to understand. This means we need to talk less and listen more—a lot more. Stop explaining your point of view and try to understand why the other person sees the world as they do.

Wheel of Misfortune

Today's victims Marianne Koepnick dissed Charlie Gallagher and had to pay $2; Jay Applebaum missed the Board Meeting and had to pay $2 for causing everyone to worry about him.

Happy Bucks:

Marc Hurd- Award winning Chili chef- thanked everyone who helped at and before the event. He singled out the two Santiago Canyon Mentee recipients who did an outstanding job.

- Marc & wife Mona will be going on a river cruise from Amsterdam to celebrate their 35th anniversary.

Steve Stern- Is going to be doing an estate sale on Friday April 21 and Saturday April 22nd from 9am-3pm at 634 S Daisy Ave, Santa Ana that features Catalan Furniture and rare books.

Bill Baker- Is happy to announce the Boy Scouts are out of bankruptcy, and all charter partners are absolved.

Chad Zimmerman- Is looking for a new opportunity. His new employer let him go because he was not willing to move to Houston.

Bill Underwood- Saluted Jose Vargas and Roy Berelowitz for their contributions to the club and community.

Brady Fendt- Is happy to announce his Eagle Scout Rating has been confirmed and he has been accepted at UCI.

Charlie Gallagher- Announced both his sisters are pregnant and one of his sisters is in town visiting.

Bill Baker- Announced that on Saturday, May 13th Dave Lopez will be speaking locally. Seating is limited to 50 people. Cost is $35.00 and includes food and wine.

Speaker: OC Supervisor 3rd District Don Wagner

- Supervisor Wagner will also be at a Meet & Greet with other local politicians, including VP Council Members Nicole Jones and Jordan Wu at Santiago Canyon College tonight at 7-8pm. Supervisor Wagner is also the Chairman of the Board of the Supervisors, which means he runs the meetings and oversees some of the goings-on at other districts. He noted there are 5 Supervisors and to get anything done you need to have 3 out of 5 votes. He spoke about the budget for the county for 2022-2023, which is $8.8 billion. Only $975.3 million is available for discretionary spending, i.e. Sheriff, health care, county employees, etc. $7 billion of the budget is for pass-throughs, programs mandated by the feds or state, meaning monies earmarked for particular programs. $1.2 Billion was for Covid Relief and that is not being renewed this year. It was also pointed out that for every dollar the taxpayer sends to Sacramento the county only gets 6 cents back. This is as opposed to LA County that gets 25cents, San Diego 12cents, and Riverside 10cents. If Orange County were to get 12 cents per dollar it would increase our discretionary funds budget to $1,950.6 billion. He also mentioned that he feels the county is prepared for the big anticipated snow melt.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Chairman Wagner is honored to represent over 630,000 diverse residents at the Orange County Board of Supervisors, in the communities of Anaheim Hills, Irvine, Lake Forest, North Tustin + Tustin, Orange, Mission Viejo, Rancho Santa Margarita, the unincorporated canyons, Villa Park, and Yorba Linda.

Chairman Wagner serves on the following for the County in 2023:

- Orange County Transportation Authority (OCTA)
- Transportation Corridor Agencies (TCA) - Foothill/Eastern and San Joaquin Hills
- Orange County Fire Authority (OCFA)
- Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG)
- Commission to End Homelessness
- Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO)
- Orange County Audit Oversight Committee
- Orange County Power Authority
- Santa Ana River Flood Control Protection Agency
- Southern California Home Financing Authority
- Chairman of the Orange County Council of Governments (OCCOG)
