 Chuck Neimann- Is going to the Corvette Caravan next week with his son. It's a six-day road trip- he'll be taking his 2020 model.

Week Three – Listening

Effective listening helps to resolve conflicts, build trust, inspire people, and strengthen teams. That's especially important to leadership. Spend most of your conversations listening and you'll absorb the information as it is given to you.

Bob and his good friend began to make their own wines 7 years ago in Napa Valley. Their wines have won 11 awards in 2024. The business is family owned, and they don't grow their own grapes, but purchase them from other vineyards with excellent reputations. 80% of their business is from their wine club members, but their wines are featured in restaurants as well. On day one, they established a scholarship fund for students who are interested in making wine, they are also involved in community services that support families and kids. Their motto is: Make Great Wine, Do Good. They have 7 new wines in the pipeline. Cpnctact bob@vinosunidos.com or 949-482-9930
