This Week's Program

Wednesday, July 27 Transformation of Space Dan Hart CEO, Virgin Orbit 12:00 Noon - LUNCH 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. - Program

Over the course of his career, Dan Hart has served in senior leadership roles across a wide range of aerospace programs spanning human spaceflight, satellite development, launch, and missile defense, and encompassing all phases of the aerospace product life cycle, from research and development through design, production, and spaceflight operations.

Dan currently serves as the CEO for Virgin Orbit, Richard Branson's pioneering commercial space firm that launches small satellites into space from a rocket carried under the wing of a modified Boeing 747. It is Virgin's contribution to the massive transformation going on in space technology, and has the clear goal of opening access to space to improve life on Earth.

Message from President #106

By Alfredo Velasco

Many thanks go to our Rotary Board members who for months have been busy preparing for the transition from our previous, dedicated Board. The weekly meetings, events, club projects and initiatives change over to a new Board effortlessly, containing a spirit of cooperation and efficient coordination.

When you take a moment to consider, it's rather remarkable that a large, complex volunteer organization such as our Rotary club, annually switches out the President and replaces the Board for only one year. Yet, for 106 consecutive years, that is exactly what happens. Rotary ideals, structure and reputation are admirable and contribute to the successful continuity of the movement, but I contend, it is about each of you, manifesting an agenda not of your own interests, but rooted in our collective human service. Our members make our Club focused, resilient and relevant.

When we think of inviting others to join us, we better guarantee the perpetual nature of our Rotary service and our impact... locally and globally. Take a moment and consider your acquaintances and a potential Rotarian in waiting, an individual with the ethics and propensity for service. Invite them to a meeting, invite them to our new Rotary Connections (will precede, 5 O'Clock Somewhere, Tuesday, August 9th), invite them to a hands-on project, invite them to be a part of the Rotary family.
