OPEN WORLD REPORT from Serbia, Ljiljana Marcovic

1. Special needs teacher from Crafton Hills College presented a Conference in Serbia online. Will visit Serbia in the Spring.
2. Dr. Samardzija from Loma Linda wants to collaborate with Serbian Medical Schools
3. Educational Fair in Belgrade, many So. Cal Universities participated.

Dragana says she has not witnessed this kind of impact of an Open World Visit is all her years at the Embassy

PROGRAM: Larry Burgess, in his inimitable style, talked about the new reality of change that the Pandemic has brought to us all. He reminded us that Nostalgia is memory with the pain removed. He talked about the expansion of the warehouses, the train, the recent presentation of the Lincoln Gettysburg address using the transcript from the archives of the Lincoln Shrine and lastly he talked about the importance of humor and how he would like the Chamber to start a Grouch of the Year Award!

Next year he would like to sleep in on the day before Thanksgiving! Will we let him?!
