PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Hello, my Redlands Sunrise Rotary Family,

As you read this message the day before Thanksgiving, please keep in mind how we are ALL both fortunate and Blessed in so many ways. The first recorded Thanksgiving dates back to 1578. President George Washington proclaimed the first "National" Thanksgiving in 1789 with President Abraham Lincoln making Thanksgiving a Federal Holiday in 1863.

How ironic the first Thanksgiving was all about PEACE, and however short lived it was (the PEACE only lasted for one generation), the concept of getting along and sharing with EVERYONE was a dream that speaks to the heart of our Rotary Peace Initiative. Thanksgiving is celebrated in many countries around the world. However, there are far more countries that do not celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday for a host of reason(s) too voluminous to list. Some good, many more, very bad.

In light of geo-political circumstances unfolding around the globe, we as American's will sit down with those we love and care about on Thursday in PEACE. If PEACE could be bottled and sold as a commodity around the world, not only would those who invented such a product be wealthy beyond imagination, Ninety-Nine percent (99%) of what ails our world would vanish after a couple of doses. What a great idea for Shark Tank...

I was fortunate to meet last week with some soon to be graduating Seniors from the University of Redlands. These young, driven minds were a breath of fresh air who came to me inquiring about exactly what our Team does for a living and how exciting it sounded to them. I have and will always remain open-minded (thanks to my Mom) to everyone's dreams, values, and differing philosophies. When I turned Twenty-One, my outlook was far different then these young college students. It was refreshing to hear that there are still those amongst us, who want to work, are career oriented and received a solid education from the U of R. Nice... You will get from education what you put into it. All good...

I will close this abbreviated message (Mr. Hernandez will be happy), by wishing you and yours a wonderful, PEACEFUL Thanksgiving.

Please remember ALL our First Responders and Military both active duty and retired. Many of them will be sitting down for their Thanksgiving meal in a far different environment then their dining room table. They are each a part of our extended Family wherever in the world they may currently be.

I remain committed and am here for each and every one of you anytime. Please reach out...

Yours In Rotary Service,

Lance

MEETING NOTES

Evening Meeting

There was no RSRX meeting last night as we took the Thanksgiving Holiday a bit early. The prior week there was interesting discussion of the difference between life in Europe and life in the US, the best airline to take to Europe (Turkish Airlines) and everyone left with really cool Asistencia Day of the Dead tee shirts. Next Tuesday at the Asistencia.
