Our speaker today was David Paisley, Director of the SAVE OSWIT CANYON's Fundraising and Preservation efforts. He spoke about all of the undeveloped land there is in the valley that has been permanently preserved as wildlife and hiking sanctuaries. Those areas protected from any future housing developments are: Oswit Canyon; Mesquite Ridge; Prescott Preserve; and Palm Hills. Thanks to the residents living close to these parcels, they will never be developed thus preserving all their natural beauty.

TRASH PICK UP WITH THE RCMS INTERACTERS!!

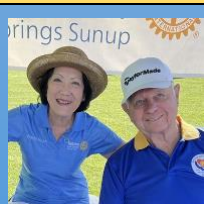

Saturday was a unique Trask Pick Up event. Members of our newly created Interact Club at Raymond Cree Middle School were on hand, including their Faculty Adviser, Ms. Goerzen, to lend us a great amount of help! The Sunup members present were: Eric, Scott, Bill, David, Brigitta, Bernie, Jody, René, Carrie, Arthur and Kevin.

ROTARIANS AT WORK DAY IS THIS SATURDAY!

Remember: This Saturday morning we will be painting the trim on 4 mobile homes located at the Horizon Mobile Village and RV Resort, 3575 E. Palm Canyon in PS. The park is located west of the new Porsche Dealership in PS. If we all arrive by 9 am Ted says we will be done by 10:30. If you have small rollers and a small brush, please bring them with you!

2nd ANNUAL PS WORLD ART DAY

It was a busy Saturday for many Sunup Rotarians. The day began with our monthly Trash Pick Up and ended with us manning booths at the 2nd Annual PS World Art Day at Demuth Park from 3-9 PM.

The Sunup Rotarians who helped out last Saturday were: René, Eric, Scott, Arthur, Kevin, Jody, Bill, Kathi, Carrie (and Bob), Mike, Matthew, and Charlie. Thanks to Kevin for planning our club's part of the event!

President Steve brought back a club flag from Thailand. He and Nick traveled there as part of the District's VTT
