Four Coachella Valley students place in Rotary district's annual Four-Way Test Speech Contest

In early March, Rotary District 5300 held its Four-Way Test Speech Contest at the Beaumont Presbyterian Church, where four high school students from Rotary clubs in the Coachella Valley placed in the annual competition. The event is designed to introduce young people to the Rotary principles of ethics and service by inviting them to prepare a 5- to 8-minute speech.

"Our contest is also aimed at encouraging young people to learn to express themselves well in public," said Linda White, the district's contest chair in an email. "In nearly every profession, the ability to express one's thoughts and ideas clearly, concisely and persuasiveness is an essential skill."

Last month, the Rotary Club of Indio shared that its students from Shadow Hills High School prepared speeches about the perils of fake news and clickbait in journalism and the ethics of mass surveillance by the United States government.

The following students from the Coachella Valley placed in this year's Rotary District competition:

- First place: Natasha Gamboa, Rotary Club of Palm Desert
- Eighth place: Savannah Vela, Rotary Club of Indio
- 10th place: Rowan Watt, Rotary Club Palm Springs Noon
- Honorable mention: Maria Mereles, Rotary Club of Palm Springs Sunup
