President Chris Schultz shared his 2023 "Word For the Year" and why he chose that word. Others also shared their 2023 Word.

Rotarian for the Month is Avi Rodrigues. She has graciously accepted taking on the responsibilities of Secretary as well as Chairman of the Foundation Fund. Congrats & Thanks to Avi.

Socks collected will be taken to the CVRM by Merlina Tate.

Announcements:

- Feb Tour of Palm Springs will be Feb 11.
- Feb 4 Festival of Local Creatives at the lawn in downtown Indio. Everyone is needed to spread the word & work at the Festival. Kids Activities led by Dennis Sheehan needs 2 face painters. dennis.sheehan@desertsands.us
- Jan 14 at the Museum of Flight, the Chili Cook Off
- January 9, 2023 CVRM 18th Annual Charity Golf Course. Still space available: <https://www.cvr.org/golf/>

The Speaker Scott Wolf Director of the CVRM focused on the impact the Mission has on peoples lives. Two videos presented testimonies of those whose lives have been completely changed.

Scott told how one way the Mission makes contact with the homeless, & addicted is through the Quality of Life Indio Police Team. Their purpose is to be a positive help to those in need, rather than a negative punitive position. Palm Springs & Cathedral City also have Quality of Life Teams

To donate clothes, household items, etc take them to the CVRM at 47470 Van Buren St, Indio 92202 or contact: www.cvr.org

Bruce Latta's ticket was drawn for the 50/50 drawing, but he could not answer the question as to how many Presidents were assassinated during Queen Victoria's reign.

Jeff Gonzolas led the Happy Dollars portion of the meeting.

Meeting closed at 1:10 pm.
