Program: Program chairman for November Sal Ortiz introduced half of our Cattle Call Royalty: Junior Queen Italia Marquez and Teen Queen Julianna Ferreiro. Little Miss Harper Williams and Queen Chyenne Cox could not make it because they were presenting a program at the Imperial Valley Realtors luncheon in the patio. Shannon Johnston is the vice president of the Brawley Cattle Call Queen Royalty. This week has been extremely busy! She thanked us for our support over the years. First Teen Queen Julie Ferreiro spoke about Rodeo Glory and celebrating the tradition of the Wild West. Cowboys have a lot of determination and heart, with early mornings and late nights, passion, legacies and hard work! Cowboys embody the American Spirit. May the Spirit of Rodeo live on forever! Second, Junior Queen Italia spoke about Rodeo glory and famous cowboys such as Martha Josey, Sherry Cervi, Jackie Crawford and Jess Cardon. She remembers early mornings at her dad's ranch. She loves to be in the saddle and loves all the work involved in a ranch. She loves all the rodeos she's attended over the years and hopes to become a trailblazer like the famous women she admires. Thank you ladies, for taking the time out of your busy schedule to present your speeches today!
