COROTATOR

Notes from the Scribe

“On the road again!” Coronado Cays YC, here we come. No badges, no bell, but plenty of People of Action to be led by 32nd President of the Rotary Club of Coronado! Said President Tami asked Doug St. Denis to offer the invocation and The Scribe was prevailed upon to introduce the visiting Rotarians who found us at our home away from home. Sue Gillingham got to tease us with “Three Truths and one Lie.” Was she valedictorian at her high school? Did she work at MIT? Was she a champion swimmer at the age of ten? Did her godfather establish Topgun?

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. The End Polio Now! Wine tasting is ON! And, Sue Maack and Pat Flynn said 80-plus tickets have already been sold, so don't be left out. Tickets are on sale! Sherry Calhoun is helping out with the silent auction items and we need you with unique gifts to step up! It's Friday, September 27 at Jim Kaufman's home. Don't forget that a $250 donation gets you Paul Harris Fellowship credit.
2. Dave Lowenberg and his wife Janice announced a $5000 donation to the End Polio Now effort in honor and memory of our old pal and fellow Rotarian Mike Dorn and his late wife Linda.
3. The End Polio Now committee, that is, Sue Maack and Pat Flynn shared a video proclaiming that Nigeria has been declared polio free and that leaves just Afghanistan and Pakistan to go. We're THIS close!
4. This week's personification of the People of Action was Craig Clarke who stepped up to host three visitors from El Chapo's hometown who were here to study water filtration so they could return and help their small town.
5. Who Am I? Finally a Rotarian! Amy Steward is a Navy Junior who went to thirteen different schools before high school! She's been married 38 years to our past-president Dan'l Steward and is mother to our favorite Dukie, D'Amy. She taught school for 28 years and has founded Coronado Speedspinners; Emerald Keepers; Take a Veteran to School Day. She is an avid outrigger canoe paddler. And, she took some time to thank all the Rotarians who have influenced and helped Team Steward.
6. Flags on the Avenue on Labor Day, September 2, and Wednesday September 11. Meet Doug Weisbarth and the crew at 1st and Orange at 7:00 a.m. to put them up then again at 6:00 p.m. to strike the set.
7. The Alt Meeting on September 10 with Jim Laslavic and Cam Cameron is sold out, but Tom Mitchell has a waiting list just in case someone doesn't want to talk some football!
8. Beach Clean-up will be September 14

Just to get you in the mood for a little wine tasting fun!

Dominique, our speaker, Alex Montoya, and Pres. Tami — all leading by example serving others!

Amy Steward gave her Who Am I—and got a little choked up at the prospect of joining a long list of outstanding Rotarians who have influenced her daughter along the way!!

Fines and Recognitions

1. Sue Gillingham's lie? She was NOT valedictorian of her high school class. She was salutatorian!

Family of Rotary

We hope Dave Johnson's recovery is moving along smartly.

Program

Dominique Davis introduced motivational speaker Alex Montoya. Alex is a triple-amputee as a result of being a thalidomide baby born in Columbia. His parents taught him to turn adversity into opportunity. The turning point came when Alex was four and had the chance to come to the United States and live with an aunt in San Diego. Coming from nothing, he GOT TO wear prosthetics and, again, turned adversity into opportunity. This attitude took him through school, to Notre Dame, to the San Diego Padres, and to his own four-year old company promoting his motivational speaking. His lesson to Rotarians: Have a vision, collaborate, and have faith that things will work out. Fun aside, your Humble Scribe believes that Alex was one of the speakers when his children attended RYLA twenty years ago!
