COROTATOR

Notes from the Scribe

Could we be close to in-person meetings? Pandemic President Robin hopes for one before he's booted out of office! But, first, the Four Way Test Speech Contest. Mike Burke was asked to offer the invocation, and we postponed introducing our guests and visitors until after the competition.

In case you missed our Zoom meeting this week you can catch it here on YouTube:

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. We have the newest Rotarian in the world, and an appearance by Paul Plumb, her sponsor. Suzanne Popp inducted Anne Stockdale under the classification of Fiduciary.
2. Big doings at the end of summer! Dan Gensler will be the new District Governor so we're hosting the District Conference September 10-12, 2021 at the Hotel Del. Kitt Williams announced that the End Polio Now Party will be September 10 at the Windsor Lawn. Here's what you can do: Save your wine corks from now until late August! All you wine drinkers, save those corks!!! To complete your weekend the Low Tide Ride & Stride is September 12.
3. Debby Syverson reported that San Pasqual Academy has been blind-sided by the state and threatened with closure. Time to rally the troops and save this school for foster children.
4. Nominations are open for the Bob Watson Service Above Self Award (BWSASA). Send names to Pandemic President Robin or the office.
5. Despite covid restrictions the Golf Tournament was a big success and Bob Plumb zoomed in to thank the players, volunteers, and donors.
6. Interact was able to take a large truckload of donated stuff to the Hacienda Orphanage and Heidi Bergener thanked Rotarians for their support.
7. Like to walk? Like to talk? Like Rotary? Put them all together with the Rotary Walking Group! Meet at Centennial Park at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesdays. Email LuAnn Miller for exact information.

We've been extremely fortunate to induct new members during COVID. Meet Michelle Meek, one of our newest Rotarians!

Fines and Recognitions

No time today.

Check our club calendar for weekly opportunities to clean up around town!

Family of Rotary

1. Chip Garry is finally getting his surgery this week and he's very optimistic!

Program

Heidi Bergener ran the sub-regional show for the Rotary Four Way Test Speech contest. Judges this round were Liz Merrill, Rob Taylor, and Ivan Dunn. Participant #1, Cecile Cano Rocha spoke on applying the Four Way Test to coming out as bisexual. Participant #2, Kiley Womack, told of how the issues that arose from breaking up with a long term boyfriend, Cecila and Kiley won $75 each. Participant #3, Nicki Hakmet tied menstrual taboos to an application of the Four Way Test, Nicki gave the first place speech and we move on to the next round and receive a check for $200. Participant #4, Kai De Luz, mused on the "conversational apocalypse" of talking about politics or religion. Kai was second place and won $150 and moves on to the next round, They all gave excellent speeches and we're glad we didn't have to be a judge!
