COROTATOR

Notes from the Scribe

You know what they say about laws and sausages. Well, if you tuned in early you got to see how a Rotary zoom meeting is put together. They got it going and Pandemic President Robin asked Gloria Nedell to zoom in from Palm Desert and offer the invocation. John Weisbarth asked the visiting Rotarians and guests to make themselves known. Then Pandemic President Robin played "question and answer" with "The Johns." John Weisbarth and John Duncan got to tell us about which movies they liked and where they liked to eat.

In case you missed our Zoom meeting this week you can catch it here on YouTube:

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. Since its inception we have supported the San Diego Tennis Association's wounded warrior tennis camp. Steve Kappes accepted, and Suzanne Manuel presented, our $1000 donation.
2. We also donated $1500 to the Coronado Schools' Foundation. Sue Ryan did the honors and Jeanmarie Bond, in her last official act, accepted.
3. Mike Donovan gave the City update which included updates on covid, the citizen survey, the Winn Room upgrade, and personnel changes
4. No trash pickup on the Strand this weekend due to Easter. But, April 24 will find Ivan Dunn and the gang at 2:00 p.m. in the Cays to clean up the beach. Email Ivan if you want to play.
5. Big doings at the end of summer! Dan Gensler will be the new District Governor so we're hosting the District Conference September 10-12, 2021 at the Hotel Del. Kitt Williams announced that the End Polio Now Party will be September 10 at the Windsor Lawn. Here's what you can do: Save your wine corks from now until late August! All you wine drinkers, save those corks!!! To complete your weekend the Low Tide Ride & Stride is September 12.
6. Debby Syverson reported that San Pasqual Academy had been blind-sided by the state and threatened with closure. Time to rally the troops and save this school for foster children.
7. Nominations are open for the Bob Watson Service Above Self Award (BWSASA). Send names to Pandemic President Robin or the office.
8. Like to walk? Like to talk? Like Rotary? Put them all together with the Rotary Walking Group! Meet at Centennial Park at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesdays. Email LuAnn Miller for exact information.

We've been extremely fortunate to induct new members during COVID. Meet Anne Stockdale, one of our newest Rotarians!

Check our club calendar for weekly opportunities to clean up around town!

Program

A program five years in the making! Our own Jeff Tyler brought a slide show of his 2016 trip to Alaska to see the Iditarod dog sled race and the Aurora Borealis. He met his friend John Norman, who's been involved with the Iditarod since its inception, up there. They went for the Iditarod and stayed for the Aurora Borealis. The dog race is over 1000 miles from Anchorage to Nome. The 2016 edition had 86 mushers and 1600 dogs. The winner gets $75,000! They also went to the Chena Hot Springs and Fairbanks for the Aurora Borealis and the ice sculptures. Jeff provided beautiful of all of it.
