All the Red Badgers in attendance got to stand and be recognized.

Program

Jeanmarie Bond introduced our former member Jacques Spitzer and his colleague and mentor Jeff Campbell for a lively discussion of their book "Think Better." Jeff, a former president of Burger King Corporation, was teaching a graduate class at SDSU when he met Jacques because he needed a new website. The result of their collaboration and friendship is the book, "Think better." It's a book of 25 parables and illustrations to enhance your decision-making power. It looks like an interesting little book.
