Gary Lewis and other members of the Lewisville Noon Rotary were delighted to host Jeremiah Mumo Musyimi from the Rotary Club of Westlands, Nairobi, Kenya, who came to North Texas for a visit last week. Jeremiah is a very active Rotarian and operates Friends of Love Kibera, which provides food, water, educational opportunities, and other much needed support for impoverished children in the Kibera district of Nairobi. Jeremiah is a passionate about helping youth break free from the bonds of poverty. In addition to his work with the nonprofit, he is also a psychologist and a farmer. During his visit, Jeremiah stayed in Flower Mound with his local host, Linda Williams (pictured above in the white blouse). Williams attended the Friday afternoon gathering along with Chris Haverstick of the Cross Timbers Rotary (third from right), and several members of the Lewisville Noon Rotary, including ADG Bill Lawrence (far left), Gary Lewis (back row, second from left), LNR club president Sue Bowman (second from right), and Kathy Travis (far right).

Family of Rotary

Please pray for Debbie Goforth, who is beginning chemo for a recent breast cancer diagnosis on November 4th.

Please pray for Dean Ueckert's wife, Cathy, who has a brain tumor. She appreciates cards but has asked for no visits or calls.
