Retired journalist Gary Sosniecki, a member of the Lebanon, Missouri Rotary Club, worked at newspapers in four states during a 43-year career that included owning three Missouri weekly newspapers with his journalist wife Helen. He has received dozens of awards for journalism excellence from state, national, and international newspaper organizations.

In his presentation, Gary talked about his great-grandmother's murder and the journey he took in writing his book, The Potato Masher Murder.

The meeting closed with the Four Way Test.
