"Zoom Edition"

The Crestwood Sunset Hills Rotary Club met virtually via zoom at noon on the 1st of July, 2020. The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance. Twenty-Seven member were in attendance. Our immediate past president, Charlie Wolter, presided as president Beth Rogers was on vacation.

Announcements:

- The annual Fall Craft Fair for 2020 was cancelled due to the ongoing pandemic. Over three hundred emails were sent to vendors informing them of the cancellation and asking if they wanted a refund or a transfer of payments to the 2021 Fair. To date, roughly 150 to 160 have responded with over 90% of those transferring payment to next year.
- The Inner City Meetings continue to be cancelled.
- The monthly parking lot clean up will take place on July 11th at 8:00 am. Meet at the lot at the southeast corner of the Gravios and I-270.
- Invoices for annual dues have been sent and are now due for payment. Please send checks to the address in the letter or directly to Chuck Triplet or Glen Deutsch.
- The next breakfast meeting will be at 7:30 am on July 31st at Denny's on Watson.
- The next packing dates for the Feed the Knowledge program are:
 - 8/13 at 4:00 PM; unloading the truck
 - 8/15 at 10:00 am; packing bags

Both of these will take place at Truman School at 12225 Eddie and Park.

- The Rotary Golf league continues with tee times starting at 4:00 at the Tapawingo Golf course. The league meets every other Wednesday. Contact Dave Dilthey for details.
- HR updated progress on his new hotel and offered tours of the facility for those who are interested.

Speaker:

Our guest speaker was Jim Merkel. Part of a family of piano craftsmen that came to St. Louis in 1858, Mr. Merkel grew up in Des Peres and Webster Groves. A graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism, he has written for local media for more than 30 years. Growing Up St. Louis: Looking Back Through the Decades is the fifth book he has written about St. Louis for Reedy Press. He lives with his wife, Lorraine, in the Bevo Mill neighborhood of South St. Louis.

The Club meeting on the 22nd of July will include a presentation from Martha Henderson celebrating the 60th anniversary of the CSH Rotary club.

The meeting closed with the Four Way Test.
