Opening: Jim Jenkins opened with the Prayer, Pledge and the Four-Way Test.
Guests: Dee Jenkins; Brandon Gammill, Vice President, Facilities and Properties, YMCA.
Rotary Moment: None this week.
Announcements: President Paula Montgomery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scott Tumlin reported the Millsap Farms pizza social starts at 6PM and individuals pay when they arrive. Guests are invited. The October 24 tour of the Emergency Operations Center will begin at 5:30PM. Any friends interested in the County's emergency response procedures are welcome to join us. RSVP to Scott. • Sarah Bakerink notified us that we have received the Presidential Citation for her year as President. • President Paula distributed copies of our Board's goals for this Rotary year to achieve to receive the Presidential Citation after this year. Included in the goals is that at least four members attend the District Conference being held this year at the DoubleTree on October 26.
Sergeant-At-Arms: James Young is traveling. President-Elect Craig Steensland stepped into the role looking for someone to match his $20 bill. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bud Jones and Scott Tumlin together matched the challenge. • Cliff Buchanan greatly enjoyed a family cruise. • Jim Jenkins thanked Emily Inman for noting donations that are tax deductible. • Joe Stokes enjoyed hearing 6,500 fans singing the National Anthem a capella at the final season game. The Springfield Cardinals are entering the post season play-offs. • Ellen Duvall is happy to be home from her cruise on the Seine. • Paula Montgomery is happy her golden doodle has been accepted into a pet-therapy program.
Program: Ellen Duvall shared facts and stories they gleaned from their June trip to Zambia (Victoria Falls), Botswana (safari), and Cape Town. There are 54 countries in the African continent and 73 dialects/languages. Emily Inman presented photo slides of scenes and animals they saw and both shared perceptions and experiences until they ran out of time.
