Well, it certainly wasn't that impressive, but it does count as a win. We fared better than some of our other SEC brethren. I'm talking to you Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, and Ole Miss. Let's hope we can make Ole Miss 0-2 this weekend.

Speaking of this weekend, we'll be cleaning up our section of Mission Blvd. We'll meet in the front parking lot of Root school on Saturday morning at 8 a.m. and knock it out quickly. We hope to see a lot of you there. Also, October 19th is our build day for a Habitat for Humanity project and October 11th, 12th, and 13th is the weekend of the Fayro Charity Softball Tournament. This tournament is a club effort and we look forward to having a great Rotarian turnout this year to help. The District 6110 conference is being held in Tulsa on September 28th. See me if you want more details. We have 4 tickets at a Rotary table for the Fayetteville Public Education Foundation's Hall of Honor Ceremony. Fellow Rotarian Conrad Odom is one of this year's inductees. If you would like to join Zoe Naylor and her husband at our table, please let me know.

I wish I could say last week's program was fun and uplifting. It was actually quite disturbing. While I certainly appreciate the work Kevin Metcalf and his team are doing to combat cyber crime, it would be nice if we could use their expertise in other ways.

This Thursday we will have a new member introduction. Victor Wilson, a current board member sponsored by Lewis Epley will be introduced. Seems odd to introduce a board member as a new member but somehow we've missed a formal intro for Victor. Our program this week, entitled "Why Natives Matter", will be given by Lisa Morrison.

Well, Thad Kelly did it again. He knew that the longest venomous snake in the world is the King Cobra. It was sad to hear that Thad was struck by a silver 4 door GMC truck in the parking lot of Mermaid's after the meeting. He'll be out of commission for some time so that means someone else can win the trivia game. And that's pure coincidence that I drive that exact same type vehicle.
