What's Happening

The Rotary Club of Fayetteville

I will give the Hogs credit, they put up a good fight last Saturday. Maybe we're heading in the right direction after all. I was unable to watch much of the game as I was at the Rotary District 6110 Conference in Tulsa. In fact, Zoe scolded me for watching the final few minutes on my phone during one of the programs. Along with Zoe and me, Paul Reagan and Tommy Lewis were also in attendance. Speaking of those two gentlemen, I can't tell you how much we should all appreciate them. Paul with what he does with our youth programs and Tommy with the Medical Supplies Network. These guys just quietly go about their business of being model Rotarians and with two of what, in my opinion, are our most worthwhile programs. Thank you, gentlemen, you represent us well.

Our Fayro Softball Tournament is right around the corner - Oct. 12th and 13th. Chuck Culver, the founder of this fundraiser, called a meeting so that we could make sure we had everything lined out. For the record, Chuck was a no-show at said meeting. Nice. That said, we made it through without him thanks to Jimmie and Harrison. Remember to sign up to help. Sign-up sheets will be on your tables from now until the event. We need everyone to pitch in and make this a success. We also have our Habitat for Humanity build day on October 19th.

RYLA is in need of chaperones for camp, as well as volunteers to document the experience through video and photography. They are also looking for help in the mentoring and service areas. Please see me, Paul Reagan, or Erica Estes if you would be willing to help with this awesome experience for the youth in our district.

This Thursday, Ben Carter and Jay Rowland would like ALL NEW MEMBERS from the last 24 months, and anybody else who still feels like a new member, to meet with them at 11:15 at Mermaid's.

I hope everyone enjoyed our program last week about the Clinton Presidential Center given by Lena Moore. Lena showed up at 12:15. To say I was a little worried is an understatement. I had several Rotarians suggest that I should always have a backup program ready in the event of a no-show. That's good information, but wouldn't it be helpful to know that before it happens?

No one knew last week's trivia question. We have a rollover pot of $20, plus half of Thursday's ticket sales. I will make the question a little easier so bring some $1's for trivia.

Menu for October 3rd: Gorgonzola Pork with Rice, Beef Stroganoff, Honey Glazed Carrots.

Rotarian of the Day: Harrison Pittman

Program: Deacue Fields, Dean, University of Arkansas, Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences

Sergeant at Arms: Emily Mizell

Invocator: Howard Brill

Change Cups for October: Susan G. Komen

I look forward to seeing everyone Thursday.
Yours in Rotary Service,
Roger Cunningham
