Rotary Gives Opportunities

March 18, 2021

The Rotary Club of Fayetteville

Good morning Rotarians, I hope you are beginning your week with a positive outlook. Even though allergy season has descended upon us, it will be 74 today! So there is a silver lining to all things in life.

This week, our program will be brought by Larry Shackelford. Larry is the CEO of Washington Regional Medical Center. He will be discussing current and future impact of COVID19 on patients, staff and operations. We hope you can join us. Feel free, as always, to invite friends and colleagues.

Above Self Nominees Needed!! Rotarians enthusiastically adopted the motto Service Above Self in 1911 because it so aptly articulated the ideals that the fledgling organization was in the process of developing. For 110 years, this motto has served as the underlying motif of our efforts to carry out humanitarian service, promote high ethical standards, and work for international understanding and peace. As with anything that has become an innate part of our lives, it is easy to take this motto for granted. It is at this time that we offer all Rotarians an opportunity to reflect carefully on the true meaning of Service Above Self as we renew our commitment to this timeless message of compassion and generosity of spirit. Each year, our club members celebrate fellow Rotarians and community members who make a difference in the community and world by holding our special Service Above Self banquet. During the banquet, the Fred Vorsanger Award is given to a Rotarian (club member) and the Clark McClinton Award is given to a person in the community. Both recipients personify the Service Above Self. We need nominations for a Rotarian and a non-Rotarian for these awards. Please email nominations to Christine Cook - you will remain anonymous to the selection committee: christinecooksell@gmail.com
