I was born in Aurora, IL, and raised in Naperville, IL. I graduated from Naperville High School and then went on to earn a BS degree from the University of Wisconsin. I began my career with Amoco and after 25 years finished with BP in their corporate real estate department managing data center operations in Chicago, Houston, Atlanta, and Tulsa. After my oil and gas career, I went into corporate real estate in Tulsa managing 3 million sq. ft. of downtown properties for Maurice Kanbar.

Before retiring in 2012, I served as President of the local chapter of BOMA (Bldg Owners & Managers Assoc.), Chairman of the Tulsa Mechanical Appeals Board, and on the maintenance committee for ONEOK Stadium. Jane and I have 2 sons, and 2 grandsons. I started fishing at age 7 and continue to be on the water every chance I get.
