Rotarian of the Day - Scott Robinson

Scott was born and raised in the Cleveland Ohio area. His parents immigrated from England in the early 1950s and settled in Ohio because of his father's work with Ford Motor Company.

In 1982 he traveled to southern New Mexico to spend time with family for a few weeks and ended up staying in New Mexico 40 years!

Professionally, Scott spent the first 20 years of his career in the automobile industry, primarily focused on finance. In 2003 he moved over to financing homes and enjoyed the next 20 years in mortgage helping hundreds of families to purchase properties in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Scott met his beautiful Vanessa(a Tulsa native) in Santa Fe, where they were married 20 years ago. He also has two bright and beautiful daughters who currently teach dance in the Denver Colorado area.

Scott joined Gateway Mortgage in 2011 and opened a branch in Santa Fe. He employed a team of six to work with him at that location with much success for all of the team.

After relocating to Tulsa in 2021, Scott joined another mortgage company for three years as a branch manager. He also garnered his real estate license in 2024 and still engages with RealEstate through McGraw Realtors.

Just this month, he rejoined Gateway Mortgage as a national mortgage recruiter, helping to grow and strengthen their team of mortgage loan originators across the country.
