IMAGINE
ROTARY

At this writing I have visited twenty-nine of District 6150's Rotary Clubs, with seven more to go in October. At the outset, I didn't expect to enjoy them as much as I have.

I didn't realize how many old friends and acquaintances I would reconnect with. My forty-five year career took me to almost every municipality, county, and numerous other public boards in Arkansas, and many of the officials had been, were, or became Rotarians. And, as you know, in Arkansas everyone has connections with everyone else. One Rotarian was a roommate of my brother soon after they had graduated from college. Another Rotarians eighth grade English teacher is a friend of mine. I could go on forever.

Every visited club has a unique personality and customs. All, without fail, were affected by covid, and are attempting to emerge from the restrictions imposed by the virus, and no club has had an easy time of it. Rebuilding membership is a priority for every club.

On a bright note, the Stuttgart Rotary Club is celebrating its Centennial on October 18th. The Club broke ground on its Rotary Club Centennial Park and Allen Homra Memorial Pavilion on September 27. David Leech tells me that the Club is attempting to reach a membership level of 100 by October 18th. It will be a wonderful celebration and my wife and I are looking forward to attending.

Bobby Wilson, a member of the Cleburne County Rotary Club, is interested in applying for a Rotary Global Grant to benefit two schools in Honduras. The Rotary Club in San Pedro Sula, Honduras will co-sign the grant. If any club is interested in participating, Bobby's email is wilbobmar@gmail.com.

When I was a boy, I was told that anybody could become President: I'm beginning to believe it. Clarence Darrow

Hanging is too good for a man who makes puns: he should be drawn and quoted. Fred Allen

I took a speed reading course and read War and Peace in twenty minutes. It involves Russia. Woody Allen

The scenery in the play was beautiful, but the actors got in front of it. Alexander Woolcott

October Admin Notes

By Lisa K. Golden

October is Community Economic and Development Month

Nearly 800 million people live on less than $1.90 a day. Rotary members are passionate about providing sustainable solutions to poverty at home and abroad. Growing local economies is one of Rotary's seven areas of focus. October is a great time to plan a project that will impact your community.

District Nominating Committee

The district nominating committee is accepting nominations for District Governor-nominee designate, who will serve as the district governor in 2025-26. Each club can suggest one person if there is a candidate from your club that would be willing to serve in that Rotary year. Instructions have been emailed to each club President and Assistant Governor on how to submit your club's nomination. All forms must be mailed by December 1, 2022.

Club Secretaries - Has your club's meeting place or time changed? Any other club information changed? Make sure you update DACdb with the new information. If so, go to admin functions and edit club to make the updates.
