Governor Asa Hutchinson

11:30 a.m. Networking and Buffet Open Program at Noon
Great Hall, Clinton Center
Virtual Option: Zoom

From the Clinton Center: Based upon guidance issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, anyone entering the Clinton Center must wear a mask while indoors, regardless of COVID-19 vaccination status except when seated at their table or when actively eating or drinking.

Asa Hutchinson is the 46th governor of the State of Arkansas. In 2018, he was re-elected with 65% of the vote, having received more votes than any other candidate for governor in the state's history.

He has won recognition for the state as a leader in computer science education, cut taxes by over $250 million, and signed a law that exempts the retirement pay of veterans from state income tax.

President Ronald Reagan appointed Governor Hutchinson as U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Arkansas. In 1996, he won the first of three successive terms in the U.S. House of Representatives. During his third term in Congress, President George W. Bush appointed him director of the Drug Enforcement Administration and later as an undersecretary in the newly created Department of Homeland Security.

His experience has established him as a national resource for his expertise on trade, energy, national security, and education. The governor has been invited to the White House several times to join discussions about health care, Medicaid, and education issues.

The Governor is the current Chair of the National Governors Association. He is the former co-chair of the Council of Governors and the former chairman of the Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission (IOGCC), Southern States Energy Board (SSEB), and the Southern Regional Education Board.

Governor Hutchinson grew up on a small farm in Gravette. He is a graduate of the University of Arkansas law school. He and his wife, Susan, have been married 48 years. They have four children and seven grandchildren.

About The Program

Winding down his final year in office, next week's speaker is a fixture on national Sunday news shows. While preparing for a special legislative session and weighing what's next for his political future, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson will provide us with an overview of his time in office and a potential look ahead. He has been nationally recognized for his computer science education initiative, cutting taxes by more than $250 million and exempting retirement pay of veterans from state income tax, and prison reform efforts. Like Club 99 members, he has also been a huge advocate for literacy initiatives for all Arkansans.

Please join us next week for Governor Hutchinson's eighth and final annual meeting as Governor of Arkansas. We'll have some special Rotary presentations for him as well.
