Last chance for Mike Helm

Mike Helm will be selling his wonderful jewelry. This is your last chance to buy! All proceeds go to our scholarship fund. His creations, you really want to do it this time. Thank you, Mike, for supporting our scholarship fund.

NOTE: Mike requests that you bring your own transportation expense for this individual fund-raising event.

We want to increase the social media presence of our organization in several different events and activities, please share a photo and information regarding some of our activities on your Facebook page.

President Chris Franklin

This past Wednesday before Thanksgiving that give time and anything that create to local problems.

This time next week so much to be thankful and the ability to give much more than I am healthy, I live in I know there are billions in the world. However, for this week, I will dwell on the negative, and there is plenty dwell on the positive. Instead of thinking things that we wish we could change. We thankful for our blessings, we can spread ways to improve the community around us. Happy Thanksgiving to everyone. I hope
