Meetings in March

John Albritton will be arranging our plans for our meeting this coming Friday, March 15th. I'm preparing a 2-week bulletin this week, and I'm a bit early on distribution.

On March 22nd, we'll hear from Clarence Reese, Jr. who was appointed the Fire Chief of the City of Shreveport in April 2022. He began his career with the Shreveport Fire Department in 2002.

Throughout his 20-year career, he has held the position of Assistant to the Fire Chief, Firefighter, Paramedic and EMS Officer.

Under his command as Fire Chief, he directs a department of 600 personnel. This consists of managing: 22 stations, a Training Academy, Maintenance Shop, Fire Prevention Division, and the 911-Fire Communications Dept. In addition to this daily execution of duties, he has the overall responsibility for overseeing the department's nearly $70 million operating budget.

Outside of work, Chief Reese owns several businesses and mentors youth within the community. He also collaborates with the Caddo Sheriff's Office as a reserve deputy providing services to the Special Response Team. He is married and has 3 children.
