Club of Houma

Miles Forrest - Rotarian of the Week

Miles Forrest joined our club in 1980 at the invitation of Jude Laperouse. Miles is the former publisher of The Courier and Daily Comet, now retired. His hobbies include traveling, bicycling and genealogy.

Miles is married to for 47 years. They have two children and six grandchildren.

"Rotary presented a wonderful opportunity for community service, fellowship and networking. It has delivered many times over in all of these areas, as well as providing practical, real-world experiences in leadership training and development. Membership in the Rotary Club of Houma has been richly rewarding on both a professional level and a personal level."

Joshua Camp -- Guest Speaker

Mr. Camp is a well-known force in the hemp and cannabis industry and is a successful serial entrepreneur and humanitarian. Joshua has had a passion for cannabis and has been vocal about its medicinal applications since writing a paper titled ◆Marijuana will save the World◆ in 1993, around the same time he launched his first company.

In 2014, with the passage of the US Hemp Farm Bill, Joshua began working on local legislation and concurrently building LabCanna Biosciences, his dream of an integrated cannabis company aimed at fulfilling the lofty goal of helping to ◆save the world◆. With over 100 employees, dozens of formulations and contracts, and millions in assets, Joshua decided in September of 2019 to step down from his role as CEO in order to refocus on helping build a better, more fluid, and philanthropic industry as the President of Courier Labs.

Weekly Words of Wisdom

I believe in luck. How else can you explain the success of people you dislike?
