August 4, 2022 Speakers - Trent Angers & Chris Allain "Cajundome City" Documentary

Trent Angers (left) and Rotarian Chris Allain (below) will speak about "Cajundome City," a documentary being released this month that recaps the events following the aftermath of Hurricane Karina and the generosity of the people of Lafayette during the initial recovery period after Katrina.

In 2005, following the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, the Cajundome became one of the Federal Emergency Management Agency's evacuee shelters. Staffed by Red Cross, Salvation Army, Americorp and a host of local charities, the facility became a center of relief for thousands. The recently opened Convention Center addition was also utilized as a distribution logistics point and also housed a Special Needs Clinic. This clinic served those needing additional care not deemed urgent or emergency by local area hospitals.

Trent Angers is an author twice nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature. For 36 years (1975-2010), Angers was editor and publisher of Acadiana Profile, "The Magazine of the Cajun Country," based in Lafayette; it is one of the longest-running regional publications in the United States. A member of the Secular Franciscan Order (the Third Order of St. Francis), he resides in Lafayette, with his wife, Cindi, a teacher in the public school system.

Chris Allain is CEO of Vidox Motion Imagery which produces award winning media content.
