November 10, 2022 - Speaker Anazia M Andrus-Sam

This weeks guest speaker is Anazia Andrus-Sam SGM (Ret.). She is the President/Founder of Lafayette Veterans Assisting Others.

Anazia is a native of Lafayette, Louisiana. She enlisted in the United States Army in January of 1989 and held a succession of positions of greater importance to include Training, Administration, Security, Operations, Assistant Inspector General, Transportation, and Petroleum Operations. She scheduled and dispatched petroleum products through distribution facilities. Additionally, she initiated and supervised environmental protection activities and contingency plans, while reviewing reports associated with transportation operations. Some of her assignments include Fort Carson, CO, Fort Campbell, KY, Fort Eustis, VA, Fort Bliss, TX, Houston, TX, Scott Air Force Base, IL, Korea, and deployment to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Anazia is a graduate of Grantham University, Kansas City, KS holding a Master of Science in Business Intelligence (2015), and a Bachelor of Science in Multidisciplinary Studies (2009). After serving our great nation for over 31 years, Anazia enjoys her free time giving back to the community throughout the many platforms she is a member of. She is an advocate of the Alzheimer's Foundation, President of the 4 A's Sisters Lupus Club, a member of the Order of Eastern Star Esther Chapter #187, founder of Lafayette Veterans Assisting Others, member of the American Legion Post 504, member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., she loves mentoring young adults in preparing for college, she lectures at her church (Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church), and love assisting those in need.

Anazia is married to her first love, Virgil Sam, Sr; together they have four children, and two grandchildren.

Leadership Lafayette Scholarship Application Deadline 11/18/22

Our club is offering a $1,000 Leadership Lafayette scholarship to our members. The deadline to apply is 11/18/22. The purpose is to encourage civic leadership among our members. If a member applies and is selected by LL to participate, that member will receive a $1,000 scholarship. If more than 1 is selected, the scholarship money will be divided equally. Click here for more information: <https://leadacadiana.org/programs/leadership-lafayette/>

Alzheimer's Walk 11/12/22

The Lafayette area Rotary Clubs are joining forces to support this cause. Wilma Broussard has issued a friendly challenge to our club. If our club raises the most money among the area Rotary Clubs, she will provide a pie to be thrown in Joe Wolf's face. Please see Wilma if you would like to contribute to the "pie in Joe's face" cause. The Alzheimer's Walk will be held on November 12, 2022 in River Ranch.
