

Rotary This Week Feb 1 2024

Please welcome Mike Leonard, CEO of the Sunshine House, as a new Rotarian. Please take time to get to know Mike and his family.

Long time Rotarian Dick Eagan submitted his resignation from Rotary. His travel Door County is limited and got in the way of attendance. We wish Dick the best.

5th Thursday Feb 29th is our social gathering with friends invited. This event will be from 5-7pm at the new Door County Sand Box, 1023 Egg Harbor Rd. Please RSVP to Amy for planning purposes.

2024 Sturgeon Bay Shipyard Tour

To continue the 33-year nautical legacy of the Sturgeon Bay harbor, the 2024 Sturgeon Bay Shipyard Tour will offer specially designed cruises around the harbor.

Rotary in conjunction with the Door County Maritime Museum and Shoreline Boat Tours will be offering:

"Sturgeon Bay Working Waterfront, both past and present"

Starting Friday, June 21st through Sunday, June 23rd, 90 minute narrated cruises will highlight seven nautical historical sites. Tickets will be available April 1st via DoorCountyTickets.com and include admission to the Door County Maritime Museum and the new Kress Tower. There will be four cruises per day with only 300 $75 tickets available. These tours provide a unique opportunity to explore the harbor up close and personal.

YMCA community breakfast tomorrow morning at Stone Harbor. Admission is free.

Tonight at Cross Roads- "Fish Kill" lecture at 7pm.

Program-Lindsay Ferry-Sturgeon Bay Schools mental health programs. Toward the end of Lindsay's excellent presentation, Sturgeon Bay Schools Superintendent Dan Tjergel pointed out Lindsay is completing her Doctorate in Psychology and is the District's School Psychologist. President of the Sturgeon Bay School Board Mike Stephani was also in attendance.

Lindsay's slides speak for her program.
