Rotary This Week

Greetings,

News this week:

- 5th Thursday on February 29 from 5-7 at the Sandbox. Plus one is encouraged. Please let Michelle know your RSVP as soon as you can. Michelle@doorcountybusiness.com. If you are interested in axe throwing, this may be the event for you! There is a $15 additional fee and, surprisingly, a waiver is required and closed toe shoes recommended.
- Mark J presented a foundation moment. Make your $85 monthly contribution to Rotary to join the Paul Harris Society. 50% of funds are returned to the district.
- Aurora announced that she attended the Wausau conference and had a great time! She will attend the school's Sadie Hawkins dance this weekend and is looking forward to soccer in the spring.
- Please fill out the DCEDC survey that is circulating at this time.
- YMCA had a wonderful community breakfast this morning.
- Consider hosting an inbound student next year. A female student is anticipated.
- Karen removed her yellow ribbon!

Today's presentation was by Allyson Fleck on Midsummer's Music and the Griffon String Quartet. Over 100 events annually and 70 collaborators throughout Door County. Upcoming events include Seven Last Words on March 8, spring concerts by the Griffon on March 15 and 17, and more. Summer is complete and printed brochures will be out in early March. For a schedule visit: <https://www.midsummersmusic.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/01/grid.pdf> For more about Midsummer's Music and the Griffon visit: <https://www.midsummersmusic.com/> Allyson (I) was so happy to get the coveted mug. Thanks, Bryan!

Next week is Scott Bader on real estate in Door County.
