

Rotary This Week Nov 2 2023

Announcements:

The Rotary Interact Club will again be sponsoring the 19th annual Thanksgiving Dinner for needy families. Gift Certificates will be purchased from Econo Foods. If interested, please make out a check to the Rotary Interact Club for $50. More information from Mark Nelson.

The Stoneman-Schopf Agency is helping raise money for Thanksgiving Day Meals. These dinners will go to The HELP of Door County, for local families in need of a Thanksgiving Meal. The goal is to raise money for 10 meals. The Stoneman-Schopf Agency will be purchasing the food to go towards the meals, and donations are welcome. Each meal costs approximately $75, and it will include canned/dry goods such as stuffing, cranberry sauce, and potatoes, and in addition, will include a $25 gift card for the meat of choice. If you have any questions, or would like to make a donation, please call Julia or Paul Stoneman at 920-743-6565. Thank you!

The United Way is sponsoring the Door County Volunteer Fair featuring 38 booths to explore volunteer opportunities in Health and Human Services, Environmental, and Arts and Culture organizations. Monday Nov 6th from 3-6 pm at the Sturgeon Bay YMCA.

Prior Rotarian Ame Grail was introduced by Roger Uhtenhemer (Wausau Breakfast Club, Dist Governor Elect and past Sturgeon Bay Rotarian as a prospective member.

It is helpful if you provide a brief summary of your announcement to Keith Mutchler, mutchler.keith@gmail.com prior to the meeting to help note taking accuracy.

Take a special look at the Rotarian Anniversaries this week (lower left)- some longtermers.

Program: Jason Palmer, Penninsula Symphonic Band Director (and board member of the United Way of Door County) provided a great overview of the history of the band and the presence it has in Door County today.

- The band was formed in 1990 and has been active for 33 years.
- The first director was John Stangel and the band was comprised of 7 musicians.
- In 1991, it had grown to 50 members.
- There are several component groups in the band; ie. Door County Trombone Quartet, etc.
- Friends of the Peninsula Symphonic band was created to raise money. All members are volunteers and not paid, so revenues go heavily toward youth scholarships for music.
- In 2000, the band leadership transferred from John to Paula Eckert.
- In 2018, the band has grown to 70 members and 80 in the summer months.
- 16 members are high school students from Sturgeon Bay, Gilbrator, Sevastopol and Southern Door.
- Annual events include- Veterans and Holiday concerts, the Maritime Museum Wooden Boat Show, joint high school band rehearsals.
- Rotarian Ed Douglas is a clarinet player in the band.
- All instruments, but two specialized instruments are owned by members.

Jason shared a nice video of the Swing Band in action to include the audio. (Notice Mike Stephani on the base guitar on the left.)

I think Jason was glad to leave, hah. The long arm of President Ken. Not my best picture.
