Statement from The 2024-2025 President

Hello Early Birds!

I hope everyone had a great 4th of July holiday weekend.

I want to start my first president's message by thanking Jeff Mills for an outstanding year of leadership. We are a better club today because of Jeff's leadership.

I also want to congratulate Mike Schlichte on being recognized with the Service Above Self award. He certainly deserves it.

I am looking forward to a busy and exciting year. See you this Thursday.

Gary Bezucha

Foundation Minute

“This is a Rotary Foundation Minute from District Governor-Elect Roger Utnehmer (Oot-name-er).

One lesson learned from attending various functions over the years is that a much larger Rotary experience exists beyond your own club.

July 20th the new District Leadership Team is meeting in Wausau. You™re invited to join the meeting, see how decisions are made, and get to know Assistant Governors, committee chairs and those providing outstanding leadership to District 6220.

We are embarking on the year with a goal of having co-assistant governors serving throughout the district, committee co-chairs as well, and all Rotarians welcome to join a committee of their interest. Co-AGs and co-chairs will facilitate better continuity and make serving in Rotary leadership less challenging.

Come to Wausau. Join us for lunch, the first meeting of the year and a social starting at 3:30PM to conclude.

Joining us is one reason to spend time in Wausau. RSVP to utnehmer@gmail.com by July 16th. Two other reasons are the Leigh Yawkee Woodson Art Museum and the Wausau Museum of Contemporary Art. Both will be open.

When: 11:00AM Saturday, July 20, 2024.

Where: 151201 Dragonwing Lane, Wausau, WI 54401

Why: Learn more about District 6220 and Rotary. Meet nice people.

This has been a District 6220 Rotary Minute.â€
